

From the desk of Santa Claus

I received your letter. I have made my list and checked it twice. I see you have been very good this year!

I liked reading about the very nice thing you did. I bet you will do even more nice things this coming year.

I will see what I can do about your present wish list. I may choose something from your list, but I may have something I think you will like even better. It will be a surprise Christmas morning!

Continue to make good choices!

Your Friend,
Santa Claus

PS: I still love milk and cookies!
